In every aspect of your life, communication is key. Why would that be any different for your cells? Without proper nutrition, they can't communicate well, which can make it challenging to support your health. It's why Ambrotose® Complex powder is formulated with a specialized blend of Glyconutrients† to support cell-to-cell communication. With an added bonus of immune system support, these powders help keep your health at its best.*

Benefits:

- Can enhance the body's ability to respond to bacterial vaccines.*
- Natural daily supplement for year-round immune system-support.*
- Supports cell-to-cell communication through a blend of specific plant saccharides including Glyconutrients.*
- Can help improve cognitive function.*
- Supports digestive function.*
- Can help improve concentration, memory and mood.*
- Can help decrease irritability.*
- Can help improve attentiveness.*

FUN FACT

The trillions of cells in your body communicate with each other to get what they need. Glyconutrients help your cells talk better so they—and you—can be your healthiest.

†Glyconutrients are beneficial saccharides found in nature.
