WHAT'S IN AMBROTOSE LIFE?

1. Manapol® Aloe Vera Extract (sourced from aloe vera plants grown in Costa Rica) – Manapol contains mannose-rich polysaccharides, also known as Acemannan, a key glyconutrient sugar believed to account for many of the benefits of aloe vera gel.* Ambrotose LIFE has twice as much Manapol® as its predecessor, Advanced Ambrotose™.

 3. Glucosamine HCl – A plant-sourced amino sugar the body uses in conjunction with other key saccharides found in Ambrotose LIFE that supports cellular communication and immune function.*
 4. Gum Tragacanth (sourced from the dried sap of the flowering plant Astragalus gummifer) – Supports the immune system and cell-to-cell communication by providing Glyconutrients.*
 5. Gum Ghatti (sourced from the sap of the Anogeissus latifolia tree) – Supports the immune system and cell-to-cell communication by providing Glyconutrients.*

ARE YOU AS HEALTHY AS YOU WANT TO BE?

Imagine there was a single nutritional supplement you could take that would positively impact a wide spectrum of health. Something that would support your many internal systems so everything functions properly. Would you want it?

This nutritional supplement exists and it is called Ambrotose LIFE. It is the most powerful Ambrotose® formula ever, and it is scientifically shown to support your immune system,* enhance cognitive function* and promote gastrointestinal health.*

If you take only one supplement to improve your health, make sure it is Ambrotose LIFE.

WHY AMBROTOSE LIFE?

Good health relies on your cells properly communicating with each other. When your cells communicate well, your internal systems function better and you feel better. Aging, stress, unhealthy eating and exposure to our toxic world can impair that ability. Ambrotose LIFE provides strong support for cell-to-cell communication, which leads to better all-around health and wellness.*

WHAT IT DOES...

The natural ingredients in Ambrotose LIFE powder provide important compounds called Glyconutrients (or glycans). Glycans are part of the glycoproteins on the exterior of your body's cells. They help the glycoproteins facilitate faster, better and more complete cell-to-cell communication, helping your cells get what they need so that they -- and you -- can be at your healthiest.*

*Glyconutrients are beneficial saccharides found in nature.
