

MANNATECH.

11th June, 2019

Mannatech is delighted to announce the appointment of Jenny Messenger in a newly created role as Executive Director of the Australasian Region, effective Friday 7th June 2019.

Mannatech's regional President EMEAA, Central and South America, Christopher Simons announced the appointment on Friday, during a Senior Leadership Meeting and communicated that:

“Jenny is an outstanding leader, bringing a wealth of experience and knowledge to the current Management team. This appointment marks an exciting new chapter for Mannatech in the region”

Jenny has forged a long-standing career at senior management level within the direct selling industry, and during her career proudly served on the Board and also as a term as Chair, being only the second woman to hold a Chair position.

Jenny will, with an absolute devotion to growing businesses, developing teams and coaching/mentoring individuals to realise their potential, now lead the existing Management Team with a view to driving growth in the region. She is a welcome addition to Mannatech.
